

2007: March

28 Food for Thought: Television Food Advertising to Children in the United States: Kaiser (Press release; Wash Post story; Brownback Addresses Kaiser Family Foundation Study; USA Today)

23 I am pleased that I have been named a finalist in the Cable TV/PTA's national media literacy award.

13-16 All this week, I have been conducting workshops for K-12 educators at South Carolina ETV (PBS). Their Teacher Tech Days allows teachers to take a variety of workshops related to media and technology. My workshops are designed to introduce media literacy; show its place in state standards; offer teachers simple methods of integrating it into instruction.

12

|   |  |
|---|--|
|  |  March cover story is about why people believe “urban legends and myths” |
|---|--|

February March issue of Weekly Reader's WRITING is all about the movies

Current issue of GOOD magazine is the Media issue.

Current issue of FUTURIST magazine: The New Media Age- End of the Written Word? and other related essays

Current issue of WIRED takes a look at the latest trends in media and technology culture