

2010: June

	New book: Media Literacy Education. Nordic Perspectives
	Kids and Online Information Credibility: Latest Research Findings link to book (August 2010) Download this report (PDF)
	Norton Online Family Report: Global Insights Into Family Life Online News story

Media references in the Core Standard ELA document

The oil spill, photos and the media

4

 Final report of the Online Safety Technology Working Group	Report to Congress stresses media literacy not fear to protect youth online Youth Safety on a Living Internet (PDF), the final report by the Online Safety Technology Working Group (OSTWG) is released
	Cover story in June's WIRED Magazine goes behind-the-scenes of film making, the PIXAR way
	How Google plans to save journalism,

2 My statement of reaction to the release of the final Core standards ELA document