DEPORTATIONS TO BEGIN

President Trump calls for tripling of ICE force; riots continue

Curfews extended in multiple cities

PRESIDENT TRUMP has set in motion one of his most controversial campaign promises, calling on Congress to fund a "massive deportation force" by tripling the number of federal Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents.

The president made the announcement in a nationally televised address last night from the Old Post Office building in Washington, D.C., now a Trump International Hotel. In a surprise move after the speech, Trump invited Attorney General Chris Christie to stand right next to him at the podium to field questions. "#no_side_eye for Christie this time," tweeted Fox News Channel reporter Megyn Kelly, who was covering the speech from a sports bar near Rockefeller Center because she has been placed on a White House blacklist.

Although Trump reiterated his promise to expel some 11.3 million illegal workers on a two-year timetable — "as fast that our head will spin" — he

Markets sink as trade war looms

WORLDWIDE STOCKS plunged again Friday, completing the worst month on record as trade wars with both China and Mexico seem imminent.

Markets from the Dow to the FTSE to the Nikkei have sunk on speculation that China is dumping some of its US Treasury holdings after the Trump administration announced tariffs as high as 45 percent for all Chinese imports and 35 percent for some Mexican goods.

"I don't mind trade wars when we're losing $50 billion a
