

Ideas for Teaching Election 2016

Posted below are some of my recently developed activities as well as columns about incorporating the 2016 presidential election into your classroom.

WORKSHEET: Analyzing/Critically Viewing The Debates

ACTIVITY: Decoding Political Ads

Political Ad Parody Videos

ACTIVITY: Deconstruct Candidates on Magazine Covers

Teaching Propaganda/Argument With Campaign Ads

Analyze News Image Camera Angles

Deconstruct A Political Campaign Billboard

2016 Presidential Spots Here

HANDOUT: Questions Students Should Ask About Campaign Ads

HANDOUT: Analyzing Political Ads Worksheet \(revised\)

Poli-optics & Visual Tricks in 2016 Presidential Commercials

Media-Visual Literacy and Presidential Politics

Campaign Ads: Helping Students Find the Truth

Visual Literacy & Politics

Media Literacy, Politics, and Students

—